President's Talking Points

This is it. The month we have been waiting for, to get our country's economy, safety, image, integrity, prosperity, growth, patriotism, focus on our children and morals back on track. Have you voted?? I want to personally thank all the RWGC members who kept our conservative train on track and roaring while I was away. I was truly touched by your continued passion for our country. I celebrated my 70th birthday with a special home made Black Forrest Cake. Thank you Trisia Oxtan for filling in for me. I never planned to be away close to this election, but the friends who invited us to visit in Berlin asked that we come when her schedule permitted in late Sept and Oct.

The trip was extraordinary and European residents in 8 countries we visited, surprisingly were closely following our elections. Knowing we were Americans, they wanted to talk politics. They brought up the years of the vast propaganda machines of Hitler and the Russians. In Estonia, 40 thousand who spoke up against the Russian government went missing and sent to Sybria for the rest of their life. The fear of Russia wanting to expand in Europe we heard in their voices, especially in Lithuanian, Latvian and Estonian people, who fought for their own independence from Russia. Our tour guides had not so good words about Russia, probably many with PTSD. European, Scandinavian and Baltic people are tired of the woke culture, the propaganda in their own news media whom they "don't trust" and government leaders who they also say are "weak and don't trust them either." Sound familiar.

It is so great to be back in America where we have rights that other people can only dream of. Now let's finish this thing and get our country back. Be a greeter outside the 100 feet at each polling area. No test, no certification needed. Wave a Trump/Vance or hand out a sample ballot, or drive someone to the polls. If a 90 year old on their walker, proudly walks slowly up to cast their vote, why can't you and every Republican? Tell your friends. We are seeing many 1st time voters this election cause this is everyone's Patriotic Duty.

Legislative Update

Limited Term” Driver’s Licenses

- October 10, 2024
- Jordan Leighty

The Texas Department of Public Safety issues “limited term” driver’s licenses to non-citizens with temporary lawful status in the United States. In 2018, the Texas Secretary of State’s office provided guidance that limited term licenses were not an acceptable form of ID for voting. This week’s guidance from the Texas Secretary of State’s office is different.

The Republican Party of Texas believes in the rule of law and agrees with our grassroots members – this new advisory from the Texas Secretary of State’s office is concerning. We are actively working with our stakeholders on this issue. In the meantime, if you observe the use of a “limited term” driver’s license as voter identification, please promptly report it to the Republican Party of Texas at elections@texasgop.org. Please remember that, on Election Day, revealing whether a voter has or has not voted before the polls close is a class A misdemeanor. See Tex. Elec. Code §61.007 (a)(4). Also remember that an election officer commits a class A misdemeanor by knowingly permitting an ineligible voter to vote (except for a provisional ballot in accordance with Tex. Elec. Code §63.001). See Tex. Elec. Code §63.012.

POLITICAL CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES

Donna Kay Hallonquist

Welcome new RWGC members. Our members turned in 2476 volunteer campaign activities hours for the 3rd quarter to the Texas Federation of Republican Women (TFRW) organization who also submit our numbers to the National Federation of Republican Women or (NFRW) both are included with your membership. Hours examples include meetings, rallies, poll watching, poll working, volunteering to work at the GOP office, helping at the GOP booth at the County fair, research, political phone calls, voting, committee work, Trump parade, Constitution classes for children, PLUS travel time to and from these events. TFRW (state) and NFRW (national) members are the worker bees of the National Republican Party or RNC. Hours are due monthly by the 5th of each month to me so that I can meet the TFRW deadline of submissions to donnahall54@gmail.com or call me if you have questions at 903 241 6025. I have had several people ask me how we get hours. Anything political that you do. Travel, phone calls, meetings, events, working elections, poll watching. If you have any questions, please get in touch with me. On the Monthly General Meeting attendee sign-in sheet, you can list your hours for the previous month. Hours are not an exact science, but your absolute best guess.

In the Spotlight!

Brenda Carlton, a previous President of RWGC, Poll Judge, & Precinct Chair, has worked the elections for 8 years as a poll worker. First time voters, Seniors and Veterans are her favorite voters. She encourages anyone to be a poll worker and meet the diversity of voters in your precinct and county. Nov 5th is her last time to serve as an election worker, her choice, and encourages RWGC members to become more involved in elections.

Meet Gail Apple, a strong conservative Republican. She is on fire as a new member. She attended all precinct, county and state conventions, a poll watcher, Volunteer Deputy Registrar, and a coach with Patriot Academy. She bought RWGC members a class called the Biblical Constitutional, a review of our country's history, founding fathers and what is in our Constitution. She also organized RWGC Constitution Day training for school children in Gregg County. The class attendees were each given constitutions. Now other counties also want this class presented. By the time her team finishes teaching in 2024, the team will have touched 1000 young lives meeting Gail's goal. Volunteer to help in September 2025 to help us spread the word and meet the demand of our children in east Texas.
